

Charm City FC

National Premier Soccer League (NPSL)

Home Field: Carroll Field, Arundel HS

Charm City FC is a Maryland based member of the National Premier Soccer League, an independent national league representing the highest level of men's amateur soccer in the United States. Formed in fall of 2007, Charm City FC competes in the East Coast Conference/Keystone Division and is home based in in Odenton/Gambrills. Home games are played at Arundel HS. This highly competitive league will include, but is not limited to National Team, former and current University and College, foreign, amateur, and former professional and youth players.

Charm City FC as an organization is committed to bringing top quality soccer to the region, and to the growth and development of youth and adult soccer throughout Anne Arundel County, Maryland and the United States. CCFC achieves this by promoting soccer through an involvement in the community, through its youth affiliate Arundel Soccer Association, and by providing quality family entertainment to its supporters.

Charm City FC's head coach is Jason Rims, who has coached youth and amateur teams for over 13 years and lead teams to national championship titles including five US Open and Amateur Maryland State Titles, two Region 1 Championships in 2004 and 2005, two USASA National Final Appearances and two appearances in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup in 2004 and 2006. The assistant coaches are Andrew Dicea and Keith Mayer.

Charm City FC is both a high-level and successful team that holds the men's national indoor and futsal championships for 2008, but is also already active in youth soccer working with Anne Arundel County kids as coaches and teachers. You are invited to come out to the matches, bring your whole family, and see great soccer up close and personal!
